SUBMISSIONS

Social Justice is a refereed journal, and each submission is anonymously reviewed by at least two referees. Publishing decisions are made within 90 days based on recommendations by these reviewers and those of the Editorial Board. We work with authors, and respond with comments on submissions. To submit an article, you may use our online submission form (at www.socialjusticejournal.org) or send your documents to socialjust@aol.com.

Please read the information below before you submit your materials.

Copies Needed and Submission Requirements:

Please send us:

- (1) A copy of your article (see format guidelines below). To facilitate the review process, the title page should not include the author's name or institutional affiliation.
- (2) A document containing: cover letter, an abstract of 100 words, up to eight keywords, and a brief biographical sketch with affiliations, complete postal and e-mail addresses, and phone number. The cover letter should confirm that all authors have agreed to the submission and that the article is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal.

Format Guidelines:

Articles should not exceed 8,000 words; commentaries and issue pieces should be 4,000 words, and book reviews 1,000 to 2,000 words. Tables and charts take up more space, so reduce your word count for the actual text accordingly. Send black-and-white camera-ready artwork for charts and photographs.

All text, including quotations and bibliographic references, should be double spaced. Lengthy quotations (exceeding 40 words) should be indented in the text.

Use endnotes only for substantive comments only, not for citation. Place them in a "NOTES" section at the end of the document. All references to books, monographs, articles, and statistical sources should be specified in the main text (and in the text of endnotes) by last name of author, year of publication, and pagination where appropriate—e.g., (Johnson 1973, 15–16) or (Dobash and Dobash 1991, 1992). The complete citation should be listed at the conclusion of the article under "REFERENCES." Such citation should be alphabetical by name of author; for authors cited more than once, by years of publication, with most recent references first. Use the letters a, b, c, etc., to distinguish citations of different works by the same author in the same year—e.g., (Foucault 1975a, 1975b). Italicize the titles of books and periodicals, and place article titles within quotation marks.

For the format of bibliographic references, please refer to the submission guidelines on our website.

Usage Guidelines:

We prefer to use the term "the United States," not "America," when referring to the United States of America. For all other usage guidelines, please refer to the Chicago Manual of Style (15th or 16th edition); our dictionary of reference is the Merriam-Webster.
